

「TOKYO アイヌ」 Movie and Discussion of Ainu issues in English

25th of October

18:00 - Screening of 'TOKYO Ainu' (114 minutes)

Japanese with English subtitles

After screening –

Following the screening of this documentary, there will be a discussion on Ainu-related issues in English. Everybody is invited to participate in discussions and raise any questions they have on -

Ainu culture,
Wajin/Ainu relations,
Ainu traditions and practices, and the Ainu language.

ALL ARE WELCOME!

'TOKYO Ainu' was directed by Hiroshi Moriya (森谷博) and portrays the lives of a group of Ainu people in the urban sprawl of Greater Tokyo. This film interviews a number of Ainu people going about their daily lives and explores their fight for recognition as an Indigenous People of Japan and as a distinct ethnic minority in Tokyo.

For further information:

<http://www.2kamuymintara.com/film/top.htm> (English site)

<http://www.2kamuymintara.com/film/index.htm> (Japanese site)

Place: Room 608 (Video Studio)
Media & Communication Building (N17 W8)
Hokkaido University

For enquiries: Kylie Martin (kmartin@imc.hokudai.ac.jp)